As Associate Director for Editorial and Career Content at Idealist, I create, edit, and oversee our written content with a special focus on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. As a lifelong nonprofit professional, I love that I'm able to offer job seekers, working professionals, and aspiring sector switchers the tools and tips they need to find, land, love, and grow in their social-impact careers.

In addition to my work at Idealist, I'm also active in the environmental stewardship, community-building, and social entrepreneurship spaces.
