

Arturo Brito
President and CEO, Children's Health Fund

Arturo Brito, MD, MPH, is a community pediatrician with a population health focus. He was recently appointed as president and CEO of Children's Health Fund, an organization committed to breaking down barriers to accessing high-quality, comprehensive healthcare for children and families living in underserved communities across America.

He is the immediate past, executive director of The Nicholson Foundation—a Newark-based foundation dedicated to addressing the complex needs of vulnerable populations throughout New Jersey. The foundation is closing its doors at the end of 2021. You can see his full bio by clicking on the link in the chat.
