

Daryl Shore

VP, Inclusive Solutions, Prudential Financial, Inc.
Inclusive Communities

Daryl is the Vice President of Inclusive Communities at Prudential Financial. He leads the company's inclusive economic growth strategy in Newark and beyond. In his role as Vice President of Inclusive Communities, he works to improve public systems' effectiveness and coordinates key stakeholders to increase economic opportunities for the most vulnerable and underserved communities, particularly in Newark.

Daryl has a BA in Political Science with a minor in Economics from Emory University, an MBA in Finance from Clark University Atlanta, and an MS in Real Estate from Johns Hopkins University. Daryl is also active as a Board member in several civic and nonprofit organizations: Westtown School, Gesu School, and Community Housing Capital.