Kiki Jamieson
President, The Fund for New Jersey

Kiki Jamieson, Ph.D., is President of The Fund for New Jersey, which works to improve the quality of public policy decision-making on the most significant issues affecting the people of New Jersey and our region.

Previously, Jamieson led the Pace Center for Civic Engagement and taught in the Politics department at Princeton University, and before that at the University of Pennsylvania, Haverford College, and Rutgers University. The author of Real Choices: Feminism, Freedom, and the Limits of Law, she was a visiting scholar at the Institute for Advanced Study.

Jamieson chairs the board of the New Jersey Council for the Humanities and is a trustee of Bryn Mawr College and the Council of New Jersey Grantmakers. She has two children and lives in Princeton.
