

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 2018
8:30 A.M. TO 4:30 P.M.
THE PALACE AT SOMERSET PARK
SOMERSET, NEW JERSEY

Kim Y. Lew

Vice President and Chief Investment Officer, Carnegie Corporation of New York

Kim Y. Lew is Vice President and Chief Investment Officer of Carnegie Corporation of New York, a private foundation established in 1911 by Andrew Carnegie that supports, “the advancement and diffusion of knowledge and understanding.” The $3.5 billion portfolio is global in scope and diversified by asset class and strategy.

While at Carnegie, she also served as co-Chief Investment Officer and Director of Investments with responsibility for private equity. Prior to joining Carnegie, she spent thirteen years at the Ford Foundation where she first managed a portfolio of public technology stocks and then managed the private equity portfolio.

Before Ford, she invested in private placements while at Prudential Capital and started her career working in middle market banking at Chemical Bank.

Lew earned a B.S. from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and an MBA from Harvard Graduate School of Business. Additionally, she was awarded her Chartered Financial Analyst designation and served as both a grader and standard setter for the CFA exam.

Lew serves as Chair of the Board of Trustees of the Stevens Cooperative School. She is also on the Boards of Ariel Investments Mutual Funds and TIFF Advisory Services where she serves on both Audit Committees. She serves on the Steering Committee of Private Equity Women Investor Network and is a member of the Investment Committees of the ACLU and Wesleyan University. She is married and the mother of two daughters.