

Monmouth County LTRG

The Heart of Recovery in Monmouth County

Mission

The mission of the Monmouth County Long-Term Recovery Group (MCLTRG) is to provide access to recovery services for individuals and families affected by disasters in Monmouth Co. Our goal is to assist residents in recovery by addressing and prioritizing unmet needs.

Intake/Cases

Intakes Complete 613

Cases Closed 258

Unmet Needs/Funding

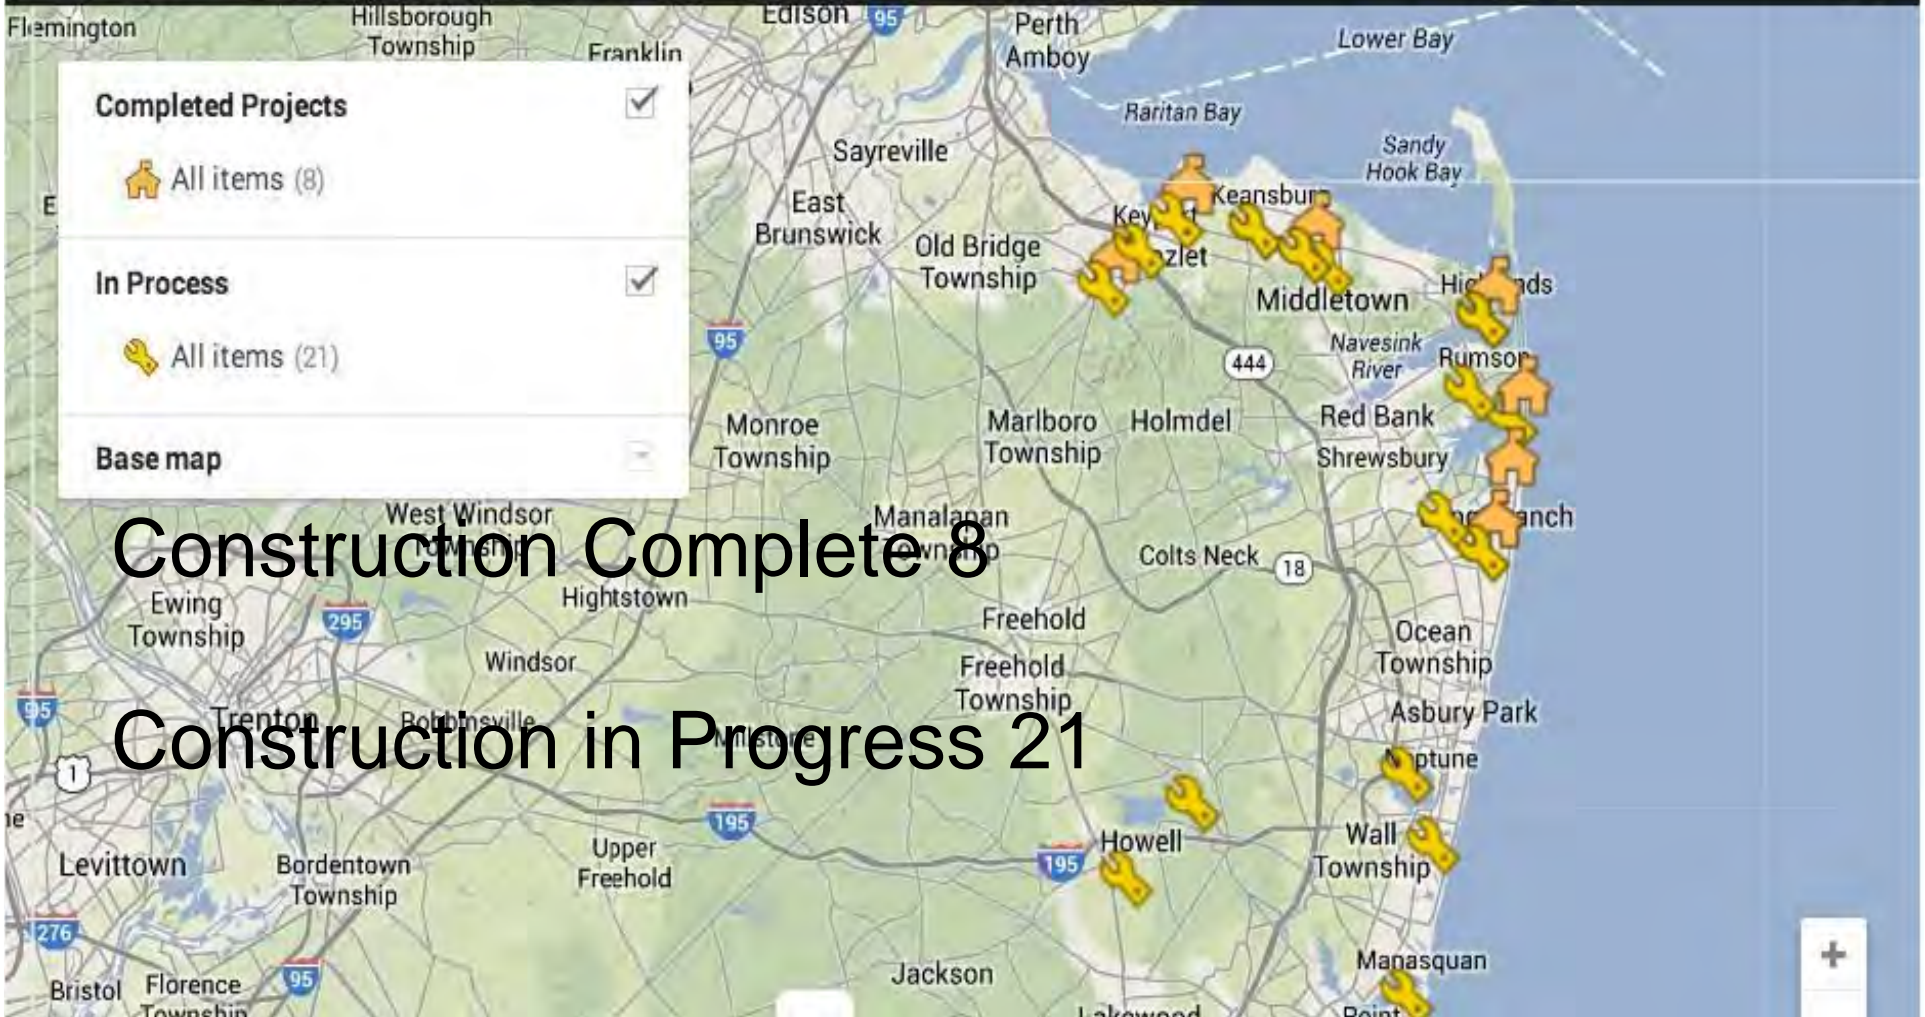

40 Cases Presented

32 Cases Approved: Totaling $420k

2.6m in grants awarded from public and private funders

Monmouth County Long-Term Recovery Construction Stats

Construction Complete 8

Construction in Progress 21

COMMITTEES

Case Management

Donations

Volunteer

Construction

Communications

Emotional/Spiritual

Community Partners

A Future with

HOPE

United Way Of Monmouth County

Volunteers

Volunteer Hours
7970

Volunteers Engaged
703

Volunteer Housing Center

- Volunteer hosting slated for Summer 2014
- Will have the capacity to host up to 150
- Will act as an emergency destination for residents in any future disasters

Community Continued

SPAN offers support to families with special needs children

The Statewide Parent Advocacy Network (SPAN) is available to provide support to parents of children with special needs. SPAN offers support to parents of children with special needs. SPAN offers support to parents of children with special needs. SPAN offers support to parents of children with special needs.

Governmental Information

Governmental information regarding recovery efforts, including updates on funding and program status. Governmental information regarding recovery efforts, including updates on funding and program status.

Information regarding assistance and recovery efforts, including updates on funding and program status. Information regarding assistance and recovery efforts, including updates on funding and program status.

About the Monmouth County Long-Term Recovery Group

The purpose of the Monmouth County Long-Term Recovery Group is to coordinate recovery efforts and address the needs of the community. The purpose of the Monmouth County Long-Term Recovery Group is to coordinate recovery efforts and address the needs of the community.

Local Media Coverage

Local media coverage of recovery efforts, including news articles and press releases. Local media coverage of recovery efforts, including news articles and press releases.

Get Your Events Added To Our Website And Newsletter

If you have information about Sandy-related programs, resources, or events that will inform or help those in need please email Community@nj.gov or call (732) 524-7243.

For more information on the Monmouth County Long-Term Recovery Group please visit <http://Monmouth.gov> or scan the code to the left with your smartphone.

The Monmouth Recovery Update

Welcome to the Monmouth County Long-Term Recovery Group's Quarterly Update. This update provides information on recovery efforts, including updates on funding and program status. Welcome to the Monmouth County Long-Term Recovery Group's Quarterly Update.

More Than $1 Billion Dollars of HUD's Emergency 5.6 Billion Set-Aside at Hurricane Sandy Set Aside for Going Forward for Disaster-Stricken Regions Not Allocated with the 2012 Stimulus

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) announced it is providing the set-aside to help disaster-stricken regions not allocated with the 2012 stimulus. HUD announced it is providing the set-aside to help disaster-stricken regions not allocated with the 2012 stimulus.

FEMA Extends Claim Period

FEMA has extended the claim period for disaster relief. FEMA has extended the claim period for disaster relief. FEMA has extended the claim period for disaster relief.

Community Reach

Bi-weekly Newsletter :1500 Subscribers

Monthly Committee Updates

Reaching more than 450 people working in Long-Term Recovery in Monmouth County

Community Reach

AOI Patch Homepage Coverage
throughout Monmouth County

- Information
- Resources
- Events
- Press Releases
- Partner Programs and Services

