

Wayne Meyer

Since 2009, Mr. Meyer has served as President of New Jersey Community Capital, a nonprofit Community Development Financial Institution. An attorney and CPA, he holds a Juris Doctor from Seton Hall University School of Law and a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Siena College. As President, he provides leadership, establishes strategy, raises funds, and promotes and advocates for policy change on behalf of NJCC, its borrowers, and the residents of its target communities. Under his leadership, NJCC has experienced a period of tremendous growth. Key accomplishments include spearheading a new strategic vision for NJCC, including creating a more comprehensive approach to revitalizing whole neighborhoods; helping shape a new model of community development that leverages the bulk purchase of troubled mortgages and foreclosed properties. As a recognized leader in the community development industry, Mr. Meyer serves on numerous committees, including FHLBNY Affordable Housing Advisory Council Chair, NeighborWorks America's Community Stabilization Advisory Committee Co-Chair, the JPMorgan Chase Community Advisory Board, Goldman Sachs NMTC Advisory Board and TD Bank Leadership Council. He also sits on the Board of Directors for the National Housing Institute, and served on the Housing Transition Advisory Committee for New Jersey Governor-elect Phil Murphy. In 2013, he was honored by the White House as a "Hurricane Sandy Champion of Change" for the response to crisis programs initiated by New Jersey Community Capital.
